Experience the Difference

Years of Service
Added To Our Staff

Newtown Square, PA - January 21, 2009 - Martin & Company announces that Tom Tomlinson has joined their staff.

We are pleased to announce that Tom Tomlinson has joined Martin & Company and will assist with the expansion of their FilingsDirect and Compliance operations. In conjunction with Sonja Rodebaugh, Director of Compliance, this team will be well positioned to advance Martin & Company's current operations and allow them to greatly increase their years of experience and knowledge base. Tom is currently a member of our Advisory Board and brings with him 38 years of compliance expertise with hands on experience at Market Conduct, Ratemaking and State Filings, as well as a host of industry contacts and even an author's knowledge. Tom is the author of AICP's educational text and Ratemaking-What the State Filer Needs To Know. Further, Tom has been both chapter and national Vice President, President, as well as Past President of the AICP. Tom has also chaired several committees and subcommittees for the organization as well as being a presenter at numerous conferences. Martin & Company is the perfect match for Tom allowing him the opportunity to assist in the insurance solutions products and services Martin & Company has established and will be developing. He is excited to work on new and enhanced business models and services that will be offered to customers. Tom says: "Martin & Company is small enough to be responsive to customer needs and large enough to meet virtually any compliance requirement. Martin & Company is truly the right fit for me and is the right fit for those looking for quick turnaround service at a very competitive price for their compliance needs. I look forward to hearing from those in the regulatory and compliance community who want a fresh look at what Martin & Company can offer." Please feel free to contact Tom at TTomlinson@FilingsDirect.com [mailto:TTomlinson@FilingsDirect.com]
